Meet Bobby Miles
Mortgage Loan Officer

Bobby Miles is a Mortgage Loan Officer at Metro Credit Union. He recently came back to Metro after being away for three years and we are pleased to have him back!

Bobby was born and raised in Omaha, NE and he has spent his entire life in Omaha. In his past, he has been a volunteer basketball coach for youth and he likes to serve on the children's ministry at his church. He enjoys spending time with his wife and two daughters and being a girl dad and everything that comes along with it. They enjoy taking family vacations and experiencing new things together.

Bobby shared that Metro Credit Union is home to him and that he values

What is a HELOC?

Home equity lines of credit (HELOCs) are collateralized loans that allow the borrower to access capital locked up in homes, which are usually by far the largest asset people own. These are primarily for borrowers who have repaid all or the majority of their mortgages and need cash but don't want to sell their homes. Learn more about equity and the steps to secure a special home equity line of credit. Determine for yourself if a HELOC is a good idea in Metro's latest blog.
